

Student Assignments

Chess

Before reading the book

Look at the cover of the book.

What is the book's title?

Who wrote the book?

Write a bit about what you see in the picture.

Look at the back cover. What can you read about in the book?

Student Assignments

Fill out the boxes:

What do you KNOW
about chess?

What would you LIKE to know
about chess?

A non-fiction book has a table of contents.
Find the page where it says “Contents”.

Complete the list below with the things you will learn about.

4 A game for two

6 You have an army

8

10

12

14

16

Student Assignments

What are you most looking forward to reading about and why?

Page

Because ...

Page

Because ...

A non-fiction book often has fact boxes and illustrations.

What is a fact box?

What is an illustration?

Find a fact box in the book that has taught you something you did not know before.
Write what you have learned in the box:

Student Assignments

While reading the book

Do you know the word?

What do you think the word means?

What does the word mean and where in the book can you find it?

Board

Piece

Army

Chess

Checkmate

King

Student Assignments

After reading the book

Questions about the text.

Where does the game of chess come from?

How old is the game?

How many players are there in a game of chess?

How many squares does a chessboard have?

What color always starts?

Student Assignments

Look at the picture on page 12-13.

Describe what you see in the picture.

Complete the sentences.

Magnus Carlsen is ...

Magnus Carlsen has ...

Magnus Carlsen can ...

What have you LEARNED about chess?
(Mind map)

Student Assignments

Extra assignment

The army.

Name and draw the chess pieces you know.

Each piece moves in its own way.

Find out how:

a king moves

a pawn moves

a bishop moves

Student Assignments

Student Assignments
