

Student Assignments

Lemur

Before reading the book

Look at the cover of the book.

What is the book's title?

Who wrote the book?

Write a bit about what you see in the picture.

Look at the back cover. What can you read about in the book?

Student Assignments

Fill out the boxes:

What do you KNOW about the lemur?

What would you LIKE to know about the lemur?

A non-fiction book has a table of contents.
Find the page where it says "Contents".

Complete the list below with the things you will learn about.

4 A lemur

6 Black and white tail

8 _____

10 _____

12 _____

14 _____

16 _____

Student Assignments

What are you most looking forward to reading about and why?

Page

Because ...

Page

Because ...

A non-fiction book often has fact boxes and illustrations.

What is a fact box?

What is an illustration?

Write what you have learned about the two lemurs in these pictures:

Student Assignments

While reading the book

Do you know the word?

What do you think the word means?

What does the word mean and where in the book can you find it?

Endangered animal

Food

Safe

Rain forest

Primate

Fur

Student Assignments

After reading the book

Questions about the text.

What is a lemur?

Where does it live?

Which animals are lemurs related to?

What does it eat?

Where does it sleep?

What does “lemur” mean?

Student Assignments

Read page 8

Why is the lemur an endangered animal?

Read page 10

What can you hear early in the morning in Madagascar?

Complete the sentences.

A lemur has ...

A lemur can ...

A lemur is ...

Student Assignments

Look at the picture on page 13.

Describe what you see in the picture.

How do you think they feel about one another?

What have you LEARNED about the lemur?

(mind map)

Student Assignments

Student Assignments
